

Alaa Badran, ICVS

Managing Partner – International Valuers

International Certified Valuation Specialist

IACVA Authorized Trainer

Member of the International Association for Consultants, Valuators and Analysts (IACVA)

Mr. Badran has over 25 years of diversified experience in Financial & Investment Consultancy.

He is a professional valuator and a restructuring and business transformation professional. His restructuring and business transformation experience cover strategies, business analysis, value drivers, financial analysis, market research, bottlenecks identification, business planning, feasibility studies, selling non-operating assets, buying needed assets, boosting revenues, negotiating loans, processes re-engineering, drafting policies and procedures, responsibilities, authority matrices, selecting and implementing reliable ERP systems, reporting mechanisms, corporate governance, risk management, compliance, HR transformation, incentives schemes, KPIs, training, and monitoring performance.

Mr. Badran has worked for projects of the World Bank and the European Investment Bank through Frankfurt School of Finance & Management, and has worked for KPMG, Ernst & Young, Procter & Gamble. He has also worked as a Partner, Vice Chairman, Managing Director, Investments Manager and Senior Consultant in over six countries in the MENA region.

In 2015, Mr. Badran became the Managing Partner of International Valuers, serving the GCC countries and some other MENA region countries. International Valuers has strategic partnerships with the IACVA, Thomson Reuters, Ipsos, and many other reputable bodies.

Mr. Badran is a graduate of Ain Shams University, Accounting Major. He is a member of the IACVA, an International Certified Valuation Specialist (ICVS), and an IACVA Authorized Trainer.